Frequently Asked Questions:

What's preferred, individually packaged meal or party platters? Either option is greatly appreciated. The individually packed boxes that can be ordered from some restaurants is a great option. However, if you order a party platter, the staff will portion the meal into Styrofoam to-go boxes to distribute.

How is the food served during Covid-19? During the Covid Crisis, groups may not stay to serve the meal. The meal is packed into Styrofoam to-go boxes and handed out at the door to their clients.

Why does food have to be commercially prepared? The California laws state that food may be made in a commercial kitchen which meets food and health safety standards. Examples: any restaurant, Costco, Winco Deli or any other Grocery Store Deli.

Can food be cooked at home? No, sorry, it must be cooked in a commercial kitchen.

Should I bring drinks? Yes, If possible, bring two (2) cases of water bottles.

Should I bring dessert? Cookies and dessert are always a nice treat. Two trays of cookies from Costco are always a favorite, or two large fruit trays for a healthier option.

What time should dinner be delivered? Arrive with food by 5:30pm (important!). The meal is served at 6:00pm. Groups will simply drop off the food during the Covid Crisis and will not be able to stay and serve. An on-site team leader will be available to help you as you arrive.

What else does Bread of Life Need? Donations are always appreciated. There is a great need for 3-compartment Styrofoam takeout boxes, cases of water bottles, individually wrapped chips, and plasticware. Most of these items can be found at Costco.
